

Production Designer

Paul Burns

Art Department

Paul, a native Londoner, began his career as an Art Director within London advertising agencies where he perfected his illustration and concept art skills. He was heavily involved in high profile advertising campaigns of the 1980s and early 1990s as well as winning the best interactive event installations at the personal computer show.

His first foray into Production Design was on the Channel 4 film "Love Story", Directed by Nick Love, which was received with critical acclaim. Since that time Paul has produced astonishing and innovative sets and designs for Film, Television, Music Videos, Promos and Commercials.

Paul always strives to push the boundaries of conventional design and always invests in new techniques and technologies to ensure that whether it be construction, design or dressing, his sets are always unique. He has worked in India, USA (LA and Georgia), India, Spain, and Dominican Republic. He has worked with US, Turkish, Chinese, Indian, Caribbean, French, German, Russian crews.
