

Bojana Nikitovic | Costume Designer

Bojana has made a reputation for herself by being very adaptable in all genres and all periods of Costume Design in both high end TV and also international feature films.

She is a great traveller, speaks several languages and has an excellent eye for what works best on the screen coupled with her knowing how to dress a big star!

She is an Academy award co-winner as 1st Assistant Costume Designer (2007) for her exquisite work on Marie Antoinette. Her most recent designs include the costumes for the much awaited remake of Papillon and The Aftermath
