

Thomas Oláh | Costume Designer

Having studied Fashion Design, with Vivienne Westwood being one of his Profs, Tom has always been drawn to Costume Design: It's all about visualising the character, favoured for period movies, gently spicing it up with a modern twist. Sky's Pagan Peak was an excursion into the contemporary, Netflix Tribes of Europa a trip into the Postapocalyptic. Most recent he started working on an U.S. show, based in the 1970s - but with a dramatic spin into the fantastic, so far still in the hidden, but soon to be revealed.
