Marcel Lattke | Production Supervisor

Marcel is a senior Production Supervisor with over 14 years of experience on large scale international TV drama and high profile feature films. He began his career at Studio Babelsberg in Berlin and has since delivered complex studio based and location shoots across the UK and Europe, as well as challenging territories including Iceland, Turkey, and Morocco. He holds extensive responsibility across budgeting, scheduling, staffing, and logistics, and works in close partnership with Line Producers and UPMs on demanding multi unit, stunt intensive productions, including work above and under water and in extreme climates. Marcel is highly experienced in international tax incentives and rebates, and maintains strong working relationships with production services and key suppliers across Europe. He is a member of the PGA, BAFTA Connect, and the Production Guild of Great Britain.
