

Beckie Nowicka | Costume Designer

Beckie has over 15 years of experience bringing characters to life through clothing. She has had the privilege of working across film and television, collaborating with incredible directors, actors, and creatives. For Beckie, costume design is about telling a story before a single line is spoken. She loves diving into scripts, researching eras and cultures, and uncovering the little details that make a character truly believable.

Known for bringing creativity, practicality, and a good dose of humour to every project, Beckie is always ready for the next adventure.
